HARDYS REACH MILESTONE WITH FISH WINDOW CLEANING®

O'FALLON, Mo. (May 15, 2013) – Local residents Frank and Vicki Hardy are celebrating their ten-year anniversary with national franchisor Fish Window Cleaning®. Their office services the following areas: St. Charles, St. Peters, O'Fallon, Lake St. Louis, Innsbrook, Wentzville, Troy, Warrenton, Wright City, Foristell, Winfield, New Melle, Defiance, and Augusta, Mo.

The Hardys have grown their commercial and residential window cleaning business and mastered business operations, resulting in satisfied customers and continued growth. In the last decade, the Hardys persevered through tough economic cycles and came out ahead.

"Our specialty is in giving you perfectly clean windows," said Frank Hardy. "Window cleaning is our profession. It's not just a job we do, and we treat it that way."

The Hardys earned the service industry-coveted Angie's List Super Service Award in 2012, an honor awarded annually to approximately 5 percent of all the companies on Angie's List, a leading provider of consumer reviews on local service companies. Angie's List Super Service Award winners have met strict eligibility requirements, including earning a minimum number of reports, an excellent rating from their customers and abiding by Angie's List operational guidelines.

Within Fish Window Cleaning®, the Hardys have received numerous awards, including the 2004, 2005 and 2011 Star Performer Awards. They consistently achieve top sales throughout the company.

"It is extremely rewarding to see the Hardys reach this milestone anniversary," said Mike Merrick, CEO of Fish Window Cleaning®. "Their success is a testimony of the commitment they make to their customers through excellence in everything they do."
