

Local 5 Positively Wisconsin

News Anchor 1: Positively Wisconsin, our commitment to devote meaningful time to good news in the community.

News Anchor 2: This morning a local company eases the burden of a well respected non-profit.

Random Act of Kindness – Father Carr’s Place 2B

FISH window cleaner cleans exterior windows of Father Carr’s Place 2B with a squeegee.

Local 5 was at Father Carr’s Place 2B in Oshkosh yesterday. Fish Windows donated its cleaning services for all their windows and mirrors.

Fish Window Cleaning employee wiping down Father Carr’s Place 2B logo on window.

The workers who performed this random act of kindness say since Father Carr’s does so much to help people, why not say thank you in a little elbow grease.

Window cleaner cleaning skylight.

Kriste Simmons – Fish Window Cleaning Operations Manager

Father Carr’s Place 2B exterior signage.

Kriste Simmons: I work with a great team of people who continuously give back to the community and within the team so we wanted to provide that service also for Father Carr’s and take that little burden of having clean windows off of their plate so they can focus on their community and try to brighten the world a little bit.

Fish Window Cleaning employees removing cleaning equipment from a branded vehicle.

News Anchor 2: Fish Window Cleaning does more than just one day of random acts of kindness. They do it for the entire month.

Window cleaner using a squeegee to clean a glass door.

Window cleaner cleaning interior window with a squeegee.