

Two FISH Window Cleaners cleaning interior and exterior windows of The Job Foundation with mops and squeegees.

News Anchor: Well we've all heard about people giving random acts of kindness to others, whether it's letting someone cut in front of you at the grocery store, or washing your neighbor's windows for free.

Random Act of Kindness Cedar Falls

Curt McCallum owns and operates Fish Window Cleaning in Cedar Falls.

Fish Window Cleaner walking past address sign with 4600 University Place.

Window cleaner cleaning exterior windows of The Job Foundation.

In the same building sits the non-profit, The Job Foundation, a financial education and mentoring program whose goal is to equip K through 12 students and their families with economic advancement. Curt explains why exactly he does this.

Fish Window Cleaning franchise owner, Curt McCallum, sitting at desk with Fish Window Cleaning logo on computer screen.

Curt McCallum: Clean windows allows in up to 40% more light and more light improves everybody's mood. Trying to help somebody out. Make somebody smile. Clean windows always makes people smile.

Street sign showing The Job Foundation and Fish Window Cleaning logos.

News Anchor: The foundation always looking for volunteers to help them out. Anyone interested can just call the number there on your screen.

319-823-1030

The Job Foundation