

New At Noon

Eyewitness News anchor, Lauren Talotta: New at Noon, a study from the University of Indiana shows people with clean homes are healthier than those with messy homes

Four Fish Window Cleaners cleaning exterior windows of 2-story brick home

Fish Window Cleaning Surprises Woman – Charleston

so in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, Fish Window Cleaning decided to pay it forward. Workers visited the home of Dina, a Charleston woman fighting breast cancer, especially while her son is away at college. The company says offering free cleaning during a global pandemic is the least that they could do for someone extremely deserving.

Dina speaking to camera while wearing a pink face mask with Breast Cancer Awareness ribbons.

Dina: I was really excited and it was just such a nice surprise when fish window cleaning said they were going to come out and give me an external cleaning because i'm a breast cancer survivor and to celebrate breast cancer awareness month. it's wonderful because i really appreciate the clean windows and fish window cleaning does an amazing job.

Fish Window Cleaner cleaning exterior windows of 2-story brick home

Lauren: Great story there and we're going to have more on this tonight on Eyewitness News.