

News Anchor: The pandemic can bring out the worst in people, but we see more and more instances where it brings out the best like this scene that played out in St. Peter's today.

Free Window Cleaning, St. Peters

Fish Window Cleaner cleaning exterior windows of Mascot's restaurant.

Random Acts of Kindness Day was last month but Fish Window Cleaning is still out handing out acts of kindness. Because many restaurants are struggling, workers cleaned the windows at Mascot's restaurant free of charge.

John English, Owner, St. Charles Co. Fish Window Cleaning

John English in front of Mascots branded vehicle.

John English: We know that restaurants were hit very hard during the pandemic and so one of the reasons we chose a restaurant and bar was so that we could give back to them, especially one that's been giving back to the community throughout the pandemic and just as part of their ongoing business.

Rob Stanley, Owner, Mascots

Rob Stanley in front of Mascots branded vehicle.

Rob Stanley: It was very kind. They're a very good company and it was very kind that they came out here with us and let us be part of it.

Fish Window Cleaner cleaning exterior windows of Mascot's restaurant.

News Anchor: The owner of Fish Window Cleaning says it hopes other businesses step up to help do their part as well.